This year we set a goal of $120 to collect for the work of our local Awana missionaries. We tracked our progress on a bulletin board in the fellowship hall until we met our goal by Christmas. Since then children have brought in missionary donations which have increased the amount we will be giving.

Jeff and Melanie serve 81 churches in New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine. They help churches start Awana clubs, conduct training and workshops throughout the year, attend training conferences that help them do their job more effectively. They also oversee volunteers who plan annual events like Awana Quiz, Awana Games, and Awana Grand Prix.

We hope to have them visit a club night so we can honor them for their work and present them with the offering.
